Location and Permit Regulations

NO DOGS, NO GLASS, NO LOADING, AND UNLOADING IN RED ZONES, NO SMOKING, and NO ALCOHOL.

These rules apply on the beach, in the park, and in the parking lots. FYI our permit includes the services of the San Diego Police Department; two officers are assigned to our event for the entire day.

Registration & Race Rules

Registration can be completed in one of two ways:

- Online at www.scoraregistration.com
- In person on Saturday, May 14, 2016 between 7:00 A.M. – 8:00 A.M.

SCORA Race Rules are available at the link below and apply to the Crystal Pier Race:

<http://www.socaloutrigger.org/race-rules/>

Note: It is imperative that all paddlers including each member from SCORA and each member of a visiting crew, all coaches, all escort skippers, any person on any escort boat for any reason, and any person who accompanies that crew in any capacity sign a 2016 SCORA Release of Liability Waiver.

Directions

The race is at Crown Point Shores Park that offers a large grass park for teams to set camps and a more canoe friendly beach for launching. Take I-5 Freeway Exit Sea World Drive and go west. Pass Sea World and take Ingraham St. exit on your right. Get in middle lane (that is two lanes over to the left) heading north. After going over the first bridge proceed in the right lane over the second bridge and turn right on Crown Point Drive, which is the stoplight at the end of the bridge. The park is immediately on the right side - turn into first driveway.

Parking

Parking is free and the lot is large enough to accommodate all participants. Please do not park in any spots reserved for SCORA officials and the SCORA van and park legally in marked spots. Tickets will be issued to any vehicles parked in red zones or taking up more than one spot.

Logistics

Trailer Unloading

Trailer unloading will take place at the far north end of the parking lot. Please rig boats on the grass in order to keep the parking lot open to traffic. Parking for the trailers will be on the dirt lot at the far north end of the park. Each trailer driver will receive a parking permit for his or her trailer, which must be clearly displayed on the back of the trailer near the license plate. Hanohano team members will be available on Friday evening to hand out trailer permits for those coming early. For trailers coming Saturday morning permits will be available from 5:30 am to 9:30 am at the unloading area.
